NOTES

GOLD STANHOPE LIFE-SAVING GROUP OF MEDALS

3 UNUSUAL LIFE-SAVING MEDALS AWARDED TO THE SAME RECIPIENT

1 According to the Recipient, this is what he did: The vessel, the s/s Harmanteh, struck a reef in the Gulf of Penas opposite the point known as Wellington Island, situated on the Western end of the Straits of Magellan, on the night of May 21, 1938 at 20:25. The vessel went aground in a gale on the reef and was some distance from the shore (an island later named Penquin Island). Martin Hugh Lee, recipient of the 3 medals, swam ashore with a rope and secured it with some rocks. He then rigged a Boatswains chair and hauled out a crew member, who slipped out of the chair into the sea. He rescued some forty other people. All the crew were saved. For this bravery he received first the Lloyds Medal in Silver—this medal is awarded for bravery at sea. This medal and the Humane Society Medal in Silver, he was awarded at the Royal Liver Building at Liverpool. The Humane Society Medal in Gold he received at a later date in London. This Gold Medal is generally known as the "Stanhope Medal" and is only awarded once each year. The 3 medals are inscribed on their edges. They have their original bar pins and ribbons. PLATE (3,500.00)
